PROPOSALS

For Publishing, by Subscription,

THE COMPLETE WORKS OF

SIR WALTER SCOTT:

With a Biography: being the first American (and only) edition which contains the Author's last additions and illustrations, arranged upon their respective pages.

A COMPLETE and uniform edition of the various productions of the great 'Minstrel of the North,' is a desideratum with the American public. No library is complete without them, and no edition extant is sufficiently compact for such a repository; while the endless number of editions, without any uniformity in size, heretofore published, besides being exceedingly cumbrous, are far too voluminous and expensive to be within the reach of the great majority of readers. The undersigned therefore announce, that they have now in press, and will issue, an edition of the Works of Sir Walter Scott, which will embrace all his Poems, Novels, Histories, Biographies, and Fugitive Compositions, as well as the Biography and Private Correspondence, now in the course of publication in England, under the superintendence of Mr. Lockhart.

1st. In Parts: each Part embracing as much matter as is contained in two volumes of the present editions of the Waverley Novels, which will be put at the unprecedented low price of THIRTY SEVEN AND A HALF CENTS.

2d. Two parts will appear each month; but should the publishers find the work to meet the patronage they anticipate, FOUR PARTS will be issued monthly.

3d. The whole will be completed in seven volumes, or forty eight parts.

The paper on which the above is now printing, has been made expressly for the purpose; the present parts may, therefore, be considered a fair specimen, in every respect, of the whole work; but, should dissatisfaction arise with any subscriber, owing to an inferior article being offered, he may discontinue at any time, and have the amount paid returned.

Note.—The publication of the first volume is deferred until the receipt of the Biography, Private Correspondence, and the New Edition of the Author's Poetical Works, with 'contemporary criticism—various readings—and correspondence with some of the most eminent persons of the time when the Poems first appeared,' now in the course of publication in England.

Volume 1 will be ornamented with an excellent Portrait of Sir Walter Scott.

DAILY PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, AUGUST 20, 1833.

☞The letter, from the senior editor, ("the pupil of Bache,") in the Advocate, this morning, is beneath reply.—We merely mention it to let our readers know that we have seen it.

PENNSYLVANIA CANAL.—The Western Division of this Canal is now in the "full tide of successful experiment."—Upon reference to our list, it will be seen that, from the 11th to the 17th inst., both inclusive, eighteen boats arrived at the Collector's Office, in Allegheny town, and seventeen departed from there.

Yesterday morning, William Kelly and another man were engaged in bailing water out of a keel boat, in the Monongahela river, near the end of Wood st. While thus engaged, a drayman, of the name of Samuel M'Cutchen, drove his dray within the range of the water, some of which fell upon him. He immediately turned his dray, picked up a large stone, threw it at Kelly, and hit him on the head with so much violence as to shatter his skull, in such a manner that no hopes are entertained of his recovery.

After examination, before Alderman Enos, yesterday and this morning, McCutchen was committed to jail, for further examination, to morrow. In the mean time, the fate of the unfortunate Kelly will probably be known.

P. S.—Kelly died at about 2, P. M., this day.

PUBLIC MEETING.—Our readers will perceive that the Mayor has, in compliance with the request of many of our citizens, called a meeting, to be held at the Court House, on Monday next, at 4 o'clock, P. M., for the purposes stated in the letter of request.

CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO CANAL.—We yesterday published a letter from Bedford, in which the opinion was expressed that the President would be disposed to favor an appropriation by Congress, at the next session, for the commencement of the Western Section of this great National work.—Since then, we have marked the following paragraph, in the Alexandria Gazette, which corroborates the statement of our correspondent, and encourages us to expect, with some confidence, to see laborers at work during the ensuing year.

"We are gratified to perceive, from recent indications, that the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, that great and important work, so long looked upon with indifference or coldness by the Executive, has been taken into favor. Should Congress continue its kind assistance, much advantage may be derived from this fact."

COMMUNICATED.

The Cyclopædia of Practical Medicine and Surgery, to be published in monthly numbers.—The first number of this work has made its appearance—when complete, it will be a Dictionary of reference of great value to the Physician and Surgeon. He can at once turn to any subject, and obtain the fullest and most valuable information upon it; information digested from the best authorities in the German, French, as well as English languages, improved by American observations and practice, and brought down to the latest period. The number for July contains Abbreviation, Abdomen, Abscess, Abortion, &c. The work is the more valuable as it professes to be merely a compilation.

☞ Subscriptions will be received by John I. Kay & Co., No. 44 Market street.

Hon. Samuel Pettigrew—

Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh.

SIR—The undersigned have understood that it is proposed to hold, at Greensboro, in Greene co., a Convention of Delegates, to be chosen in the several counties of Pennsylvania and Virginia, more immediately interested in the improvement of the river Monongahela. Regarding the improvement of that fine river, as an object of truly national moment, we are pursuaded that to none can it be of more direct importance than to the citizens of this city. Intimately connected with this subject, is the extension to the west, and the completion of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal; an expression of public sentiment, in relation to which is, at this time, by many deemed essential. We would, therefore, request you to convene a public meeting of the citizens of Pittsburgh, at the court house, on Monday next, the 26th inst., at 4 o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of selecting ten delegates to the proposed convention, and of giving an expression of the sentiments of our citizens in relation to the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal.

Very respectfully, your ob't serv'ts.

PUBLIC MEETING.

Pursuant to the foregoing requisition, and for the purpose therein designated, a public meeting of the citizens of Pittsburgh will be holden at the court house, in said city, on Monday next, the 26th inst., at 4 o'clock, P. M.

SAMUEL PETTIGREW,
Mayor city of Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh, August 20th, 1833.

An amiable friend—a clever man—who has passed much of his time in reading, writing, and traveling, has just dropped in to pass the time of day. In his travels he took shrewd views of the countries through which he journeyed, and admired fine women, good men, and fine arts wherever he found them. Among other good stories, he told us the following, which, however, we had heard before. 'Ladies,' said he, 'have exercised no small influence in State matters at Washington. Gideon Granger, who was removed from the General Post Office, by Mr. Madison, for presuming to say that his wife did not evince suitable dignity of demeanor in her intercourse with society. Mr. Granger knowing the predisposition to scandal that prevailed in the federal city, suggested to Mr. Madison the propriety of his wife's remaining more at home. The next time Mr. G. met with Mrs. M. he saw in an instant that she knew the whole, and that it was all over with him. Sure enough in a few days he was invited to resign, which he did to avoid being turned out.' 'Now that we are speaking about Mr. Madison,' said he, 'I will relate a circumstance that I heard from the lips of John Quincy Adams, in Washington, some years ago, at a dinner party consisting of several members of Congress, one of whom I recollect was William Plumer, Jr. of New Hampshire. Mr. Adams had said, in the course of conversation that, but for an unlucky expression of Robert Smith, then Secretary of State, in one of his official letters to the British minister, all our differences with Great Britain might have been amicably arranged, and the blood and treasure expended in the last war saved. This remark excited surprise and one of the company inquired if in such cases the correspondence of the Secretary of State did not pass under the review of the eye of the President. Mr. Adams replied, yes, but added, that the offensive expression must have escaped Mr. Madison's notice. Mr. Gallatin, continued he, had he been in the State Department, would never have been guilty of such indiscretion.'

Newly Discovered Substance.—Mr. J. M. Corbet at Salop, in a letter to the editor of the Mechanics' Magazine, gives the following particulars, of a newly discovered substance, to which he proposes to give the name of Thiogen. "I enclosed some sulpher in a glass tube of 2 feet long by 1 inch in diameter. I passed a very fine spiral wire through the sulphur, and then fixed the whole in a metallic lightning conductor, which was insulated above the sulphur apparatus. The glass tube was so contrived that any air coming from it would pass into a receiver placed for its reception. I now waited for the lightning to pass down the rod, and had in only two months to witness the effects of it on the sulphur, as a violent shock of lightning passed down my conductor. On visiting the spot, I found the spiral wire fused, and the lower part of the sulphur changed into a powder as white as snow, and my receiver full of hydrogen. I have named the new substance Thiogen; its specific gravity is 1,708. It has a great affinity for hydrogen, and converts muriatic acid into chlorine. It converts oil and fat into carbon in quite a new state, the carbon being white, soft, and nearly transparent after having lost its hydrogen. Thiogen decomposes phosphorus by depriving it of hydrogen; the remaining part is a new and very inflammable gas, the color of chlorine."

The receipts for travel and transportation of merchandise, produce, &c., on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, during the month of July last, were greater than in any previous month since the road was opened for use. And so far during the present month, the receipts promise a similar result.

On the Susquehanna Railroad, the comparative results show a like gratifying increase—on both roads the receipts are certainly far beyond what could have been expected—especially for traveling—while the portion of road completed and in use, is so small a part of the whole extent originally contemplated.

The number of persons traveling daily on the Railroad, between Baltimore and Frederick, is tenfold the average of those who traveled in stages on the turnpike road between those cities previous to the construction of the Railroad. An increase of traveling between Baltimore and Washington in one half the above proportion—say five fold—would give the Railroad Company a daily receipt of more than a thousand dollars, and, most probably, of four hundred thousand dollars a year, one fourth of which amount would be sufficient to pay all the current and incidental expenses—even at a greater proportionate rate than the statement for the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad—but, even if the expense should be half these receipts, there would be sufficient to pay ten per cent. per annum to the Stockholders.

Let those who may think the above an exaggerated estimate, reflect, that it will only require 250 passengers, in each direction daily to justify it—and that one third of the number pass now daily in each direction between Baltimore and Frederick.—Gazette.

The Convention between the United States and the King of the Two Sicilies, concluded at Naples, on the 14th of October, 1832, having been ratified by the two parties, the ratifications of the same were duly exchanged in that Capital, by Mr. Auguste Davezac, on the part of the United States, and the Prince of Cassaro, on the part of the King of the Two Sicilies, on the 8th of June, in the present year.—Globe.

We learn, from a gentleman who arrived here yesterday evening, from Trenton, that the High Court of Appeals, of the State of New Jersey, have confirmed the decision of the late Chief Justice EWING and Judge DRAKE, which was in favor of the Orthodox Members of the Society of Friends.—Poulson, Aug. 16.

The Fairest Christian.—Imagine a female who looks confidingly to her God, amidst the deepest afflictions, though her heart bleeds and aches, even unto bursting, and yet she wears a countenance of joy before the world; who changes not, nor is disturbed by the storm of life.—Where is her like?—In the Heavens! There appears the rainbow, that is neither moved by the winds, nor obscured by the clouds, but shines in the air, like glittering morning of a fairer world.

GOVERNMENT NEGOTIATION WITH THE N. YORK BANKS.—We learn that Mr. Kendall, the Treasury agent, left New York, on his way to Boston, yesterday morning, after having received the assent of the following banks to the propositions submitted to them for transacting the business of government, and receiving the public deposits as soon as they shall be withdrawn from the U. S. Bank, which will happen sooner than some folks think of:

Manhattan Bank, capital	$2,000,000
Bank of America,	2,000,000
Mechanics' Bank,	2,000,000
Merchants' Bank,	1,490,000
New York Bank,	1,000,000
Union Bank,	1,000,000
National Bank,	750,000
Phœnix Bank,	500,000

The following bank declined receiving the deposits or transacting the business of government at all:

City Bank, capital	750,000

There are several other small banks, called, by the stock jobbers, "small lights," scattered throughout the "streets, lanes, and alleys" of the "Imperial city," intitulated the Leather, the Greenwich, the Butchers', the Drovers', the Tradesmens', the Manufacturers' banks, &c., &c. Mr. Kendall did not address his circular to any others than the above mentioned, all situated in Wall street, and possessing great credit, solvency, and able managers. The refusal of the City Bank is amusing—it puts us in mind of some droll scenes, Anno Domini, 1825.

We recognize, in the above list, one or two banks somewhat in the interest of the N. Y. stock jobbing coteries, but the present is not the time to tell all we know. Gen. Jackson and the Secretary of the Treasury will become acquainted at the proper time with the proper banks. We have no fears on that point. All the above banks that have negotiated with the government, are under the regulations of what are called the Safety Fund Law—that is, they are bound for each other's circulation in specie to the amount of one half of one per cent. a year. The Manhattan Company is an exception—that has a perpetual charter, granted in 1798, on condition of supplying the city of New York with pure water—the best of which water is not fit to wash the face of a Philadelphia sweep. The majority of the stock in the New York and Manhattan Banks is owned by foreign capitalists in England and Ireland—the majority of the stock in the other banks is owned by American capitalists. The up town banks are owned by wealthy, industrious mechanics.

The U. S. Bank, through its journals, expresses great confidence that its charter will be renewed by a two third vote at the next session of Congress, and therefore the deposits will not be withdrawn—the present state of things will continue, and its stock will advance to 150 per cent. by May, 1834. Several elections are now taking place which do not look exactly in that direction—see the Kentucky returns, &c., but we shall know more precisely in a month or two. One thing is certain—the U. S. Bank never will get Gen. Jackson's vote. That, to be sure, is only one vote, but it is a plumper.

Cholera in Missouri—Head quarters of Mormonism broken up.

Correspondence of the Journal of Commerce.

LEXINGTON, Missouri, July 25, 1833.

The Cholera is still marching west, and we have no reasonable hope of escaping it. I do not think the disease has abated, or appears likely to do so. It is now spreading all over the country. The temperate and intemperate, careful and careless, good and bad of all classes appear to be equally subject to the attack, and are suddenly hurried to eternity. We have had one death at the ferry, and another in the neighborhood. Eight deaths occurred on board the S. B. Yellow Stone, which has been abandoned some miles above this on her way to the river of the same name.

You have probably heard of the Mormon establishment in this vicinity. Six hundred or more, of that misguided people, have emigrated within the last two years to Jackson City, in the next county to this, and have rendered themselves obnoxious to the citizens by holding out inducements for free negroes to settle in the county, and free negroes to be unfaithful. Last week the citizens organized themselves for the purpose of breaking up the establishment—Their [the Mormonite] printing press was torn down, store and machine shop broken up,—the leaders tarred and feathered, and a time set for their departure. What course may yet be pursued towards the followers, is not yet known.

Our naval officers tell the following anecdote. While one of the national ships was lying in Hampton Roads, a landsman of good appearance come on board to see the ship; but conducted with so little courtesy, as to call for the reproof of the Lieutenant in command. "I would have you know," said the landsman, "that I am part owner of this ship, and shall receive no impudence from those we have employed to take charge of her." The Lieutenant slipped a sliver from one of the spars, and presenting it, said, "There, Sir, is your portion,—take it, and go ashore instantly, or we will throw you over the taffrail."—N. Y. Jour. of Com.

The Missouri River.—The St. Louis Republican states that Mr. Brooks, in giving "the mileage of the principal rivers which pour their treasures into New Orleans, does not state the extent to which the Missouri is navigable by steam.—This is deemed of some importance, inasmuch as there is not, in general, an accurate knowledge on this subject. The American Fur Company have sent their steam boats twenty one hundred miles above the mouth of the Missouri, and, in high water, steam boats, of light draft, can ascend two thousand six hundred miles. The Mississippi is navigable by steam between six and seven hundred miles above St. Louis. These rivers pass through an exceedingly fertile country; and when a just system of Internal Improvement shall be carried into operation, not only New Orleans and the great valley of the Mississippi will be benefited, but every portion of the United States will feel the invigorating influence of such a course."

It is stated, in the Alexandria Gazette, that Robert Potter, who was, some time since, imprisoned for a nameless outrage, perpetrated on the persons of the Rev. Mr. Taylor and his nephew, in Granville county, and who is still in jail, was a candidate to represent that county in the Legislature of North Carolina, and came within eleven votes of being elected.

Religion.—Man, in whatever state he may be considered, as well as in every period and vicisitude of life, experiences in religion an efficacious antidote against the ills which oppress him; a shield that blunts the darts of his enemies, and an asylum into which they cannot enter. In every event of fortune it excites in his soul a sublimity of ideas, by pointing out to him the best judge, who, as an attentive spectator of his conflicts, is about to reward him with his inestimable approbation. Religion, also, in the darkest period, appears to man as the Iris of peace, and, dissipating the dark and angry storm, restores the wished for calm, and brings him to the port of safety.

Outline of the Slavery Bill.—The annexed letter, says the Journal of Commerce, contains what we have not met with in any of the London papers,—an outline of the bill about to be presented to Parliament for the abolition of slavery in the West Indies.

LONDON, July 9th, 1833.

Some details of the Bill for the abolition of Negro Slavery have crept out, notwithstanding Mr. Secretary Stanley refused to allow the West India body to have a copy of it. On finding, however, that they were in possession of much of it, he made a virtue of necessity, and on Saturday communicated to the agents the whole bill. Its title admits the ownership of the slaves, thus acknowledging the right of property in them. I have no doubt but this will create much discussion, as the anti slavery party have invariably denied the right of one man to hold another in bondage and to treat him as a mere beast of burthen.

There are many alterations and departures from the resolutions which passed both Houses.—For instance, previous to the slave becoming an apprenticed laborer, he is to pass through an intermediate condition. On the 1st of November next, the bill will commence its operations, for on that day, all arbitrary punishments will cease, and the slave will have his labor reduced to a period of ten hours a day. For all offences he must be brought before a Justice of the Peace, who will have summary powers of inflicting punishment, and who is not to be interfered with in any way by the drivers or planters. The owner, if he forces his slave to work for a longer time, will be guilty of a misdemeanor, and subject to the same authority.

This state of things is to exist until the first of Aug. 1834, when the system of apprenticeship will commence, and that too, without the execution of any indenture or other deed for that purpose. The original resolutions left it optional with the slave, to claim his liberty or not, and stated 12 years as the duration of slavery. The bill makes the time of apprenticeship 11, fixing its expiration for the year 1845. It also classes the slaves under three heads, with the singular titles of 'prædial attached'—'prædial unattached'—and 'non prædial.' They are to labor only 7 1-2 hours a day! The domestic slave, and mechanic, is only to have 6 years of modified slavery, but the field slave the time above stated.—The planter is not to be allowed to have the power of engaging the slave, for more than 15 hours in the week, in addition to the 45 allotted to him under this bill.

No colonial laws are to be permitted to interfere with its operations, and the King is to have full power to appoint Justices and Judges to have the same carried into effect. The other portion of the bill is occupied with a plan for raising the £20,000,000 sterling for the compensation, which is to be by way of loan on the security of terminable and perpetual annuities, to be charged on the consolidated fund, and which, as a natural consequence, will increase the interest of the national debt. You have now got the whole of the information which I can collect on this important subject, and I have no doubt but it will be highly interesting to all in the U. S. who are anxious for the abolition of slavery, and who cannot but be pained that their own free country should be disgraced by its presence.

Extract of a Letter from our Paris Correspondent, dated "JUNE 22d, 1833.

"I regret to observe, however, that the question of the treaty with the United States of America is adjourned to the next session. You will observe what passed at the sitting of the 18th inst.—there appears to be very little doubt as to the general opinion in the Chamber—it is certainly favorable to the speedy fulfilment of a treaty entered into by the Government; notwithstanding the remark of Mr. Jaubert that, "for his part, he did not think it (the treaty) should be fulfilled in toto, although great interests were attached to the question." M. de Broglie declared that the treaty was "good, useful, and just," and Gen. La Fayette stated his conviction that as soon as the Chamber should be enabled to know all that it is called upon to do in this important and urgent affair, it would admit, as fully as he did, not only the perfect justice of fulfilling the treaty, but the immense material and political interest attached to the measure. Thus all seems to indicate that the favorable decision of the Chambers is only delayed. * * *

Trade is lively. It is stated that there are now in lodgings, in Paris, 22,000 workmen—of whom 20,500 are fully employed—thus there are only 1,500 out of work. The public works are going on spiritedly.—The scaffolding for raising Napoleon's statue to the top of the column in the Place Vendome, is rapidly advancing, and no doubt it will be placed there on or before the fetes of July. The monument of the Bastile is also being completed.—N. Y. J. Com. H. E.

BERMUDA.—Hamilton, July 30.—H. M. ships Gannet, Sir Peter Parker, Bart., Tweed, Capt. Bertram, and Fly, Capt. M'Quhae, arrived on Wednesday last, from Jamaica, for the purpose of carrying H. M. 8th Regt. of Foot, now quartered in St. Georges, to that island. Rumor assigns various causes for the sudden, though not altogether unexpected, demand for this regiment; but neither our private letters nor the island newspapers, up to the 6th inst., mention any overt act having taken place. Every thing, however, goes to prove that the island has been urged on almost to desperation by Mr. Stanley's contemplated measure of emancipation, and that the utmost caution is, on the part of the island Government requisite, to prevent confusion, blood, and massacre.

The ship Covington, Captain Holbrook, arrived at Baltimore from Canton and Batavia. Sailed from Lintin on the 1st of April, and from Batavia on the 17th. The island of Sumatra is represented to be in a very unsettled state, the Malays are daily becoming more treacherous, and several small detachments of the Dutch had been cut off and massacred. Coffee was coming in fast at Batavia, but the prices were still extravagantly high. It was expected, however, that it would decline as Government intended to sell about 150,000 piculs, and the crop is supposed to be a very good one.

We notice, in a late New Orleans paper, a number of facts, presenting, in a point of view at once striking and alarming, the unhealthiness and mortality of that climate. It appears, that some years since, an association of mechanics was organized in New Orleans, the object of which was "to relieve the wants, to comfort the sufferings, and to promote the happiness of their fellow creatures." During a period of five years, the number of members attached to this association was 214; of these 11 left the city, 21 resigned, and 90 were laid in the earth, during the same brief period. Of the first 148 names on the roll, 88, embracing nearly the whole of the original members, died in less than 5 years.

About ten years since, nineteen individuals took up their residence in New Orleans, in company. In the course of nine years, eighteen of them had died, and during the late prevalence of the cholera in that city, the nineteenth man—the only survivor—was gathered to his companions! This is truly a frightful picture for contemplation.

This morning will appear, the first number of the NATIONAL BANNER, a weekly paper, to be published by STEPHEN SIMPSON, who proposes to make his paper the advocate of sound constitutional doctrines.—U. S. Gaz., Aug. 17.

Tribute to Washington at the Dublin Theatre.—Mr. Hackett, the actor, gives the following account of an occurrence at the Dublin Theatre.—"The first night of Rip Van Winkle, when in the midst of the scene where he finds himself lost in amazement at the change in his native village, as well as in himself and every body he meets, a person of whom he is making inquiry, mentions the name of Washington. Rip asks, 'Who is he?' The other replies—'What, did you never hear of the immortal George Washington, the Father of his Country?' The whole audience, from pit to gallery, seemed to rise, and with shouting, huzzas, clapping of hands, and stamping of feet, made the very building shake. These deafening plaudits continued some time, and wound up with three distinct rounds. To describe to you my feelings during such an unexpected thunder gust of national enthusiasm, is utterly impossible. I choked—the tears gushed from my eyes, and I can assure you, it was only by a great effort that I restrained myself from destroying all the illusion of the scene by breaking the fetters with which the age and character of Rip had invested me, and exclaiming, in the fullness of my heart, 'God bless old Ireland!'"

New Lanterns for Ships.—Captain de Coninck, of the Danish Navy, has invented a new kind of signal lantern, found to be of great utility in the Navy, the light of which is much more brilliant than that at present in use. It is obtained on the argand principle, by conveying a current of air through the lantern. The lamp contains sufficient oil to last several hours, and is not liable to the effects of bad weather. It is said to have been tried with complete success in a gale of wind. The above officer has also applied the same principles to the construction of deck lanterns, eight or ten of which, when placed midships, are sufficient to give light to the guns on the deck of the largest man of war. The light is so well secured from external effects, that it withstands the concussion produced by the firing of guns, which so frequently extinguishes the light of common lanterns.

We find the following curious statement, in relation to poisoning horses, in a late New York paper. The writer states that, in the year 1826, an acquaintance of his, in the country, lost two horses under circumstances calculated to excite the belief that they had been poisoned, and subsequent developments fastened suspicion upon an individual in the neighborhood, who had some 2 or 3 weeks before purchased, from an apothecary, an ounce and a half of arsenic. With these, and all the lesser facts that could be collected, the case was presented to the Grand Jury, who found a bill of indictment against the suspected individual, who was duly arrested, and gave bail for his appearance at Court. In this stage of the proceedings, his counsel advised him, after being fully persuaded of his innocence, to procure a horse of no great value, and give that horse as much arsenic as it was supposed these horses had taken; the experiment to be instituted solely with the view of ascertaining the precise manner in which arsenic would produce death, and not doubting in the least that it would do so. The writer adds:—"I was one of the three chosen to conduct the experiment. We gave the horse half an ounce of arsenic; 10 hours after we gave him a quarter of an ounce, and so continued until we had given him one ounce and a half, without producing in the horse the slightest inconvenience. Two weeks afterwards I tried the same experiment on another horse, and with arsenic procured at another place, given in the same quantities, and with precisely the same result. It is proper to remark that this last experiment was instituted at the request of the gentleman whose horses had died, and it was witnessed by him and at least twenty of his friends, and the result was so entirely satisfactory, that he immediately withdrew all proceedings against the person he had before suspected. I offer these facts as evidence that the commonly received opinion, that arsenic is so convenient a poison with which to destroy horses, has no foundation in fact."

NEW YORK MARKET.

FLOUR.—Our market has been exceedingly heavy.—Several parcels of Western, from new wheat, sold at $6 to $6 87; fresh ground, from old wheat, sells at $5 62 a $5 87. We do not know of any transactions in Southern, worthy of notice. The last sales of Richmond county, from old wheat, were at $5 81 a $5 87. Petersburg, in clean barrels, at $6. Several parcels of new Georgetown have been received, and sell slowly at $6 50 a $6 56.

GRAIN.—A lot of superior James River new Wheat has been sold at about 128 cents. A cargo of Virginia is now afloat, and unsold. Rye and Corn are a trifle lower. Oats, dull sale.—Courier & Enq., Aug. 15.

Review of the Baltimore Market, ending Friday, August 16, 1 o'clock, P. M.

FLOUR.—Supplies of Howard st. are somewhat better, this week; but we are sorry to note, that more than three fourths of the quantity of new flour arriving, is reduced to fine;—making supplies very scarce. Sales of superfine from stores, during the week, have generally been made at $6 12 1-2; and small lots of superior brands, at $6 25. The stock on hand, of fine, is rather heavy, and holders are asking $5 62 1-2; but the article is dull, even at this difference of price between superfine and fine. The wagon price is uniformly $6. Sales of Susquehanna in bright barrels, and good quality, at $6.

GRAIN.—The supplies wheat are fair. Best reds will bring $1 14 a $1 16, and very prime lots machined may be quoted at $1 18 per bushel.—Prime white, $1 18 a $1 25. Sales of white Corn have been made during the week, at 62 a 63 cents, and yellow at 64 a 65 cts. Rye has fallen—we quote to day, sales at 62 a 63 cts. and Oats at 28 a 30 cents.

WHISKEY.—This article has advanced a little since our last, and sales have been made during the week at 29 1-2 a 30 cents per gallon in hhds; and Susquehanna in bbls. at 31 a 31 1-2 cents. The wagon price is 27 cts., exclusive of the bbl., and sales from stores of the same, at 32 cents.—Patriot.

TO PRINTERS, &c.

ADAM RAMAGE respectfully informs his friends and the public, that the continues to make Printing, Copper Plate, Copying, Seal, Lithographic, and other Presses.

Among the variety of Printing Presses in use, it is found necessary, where printing is so universal, to have one of a simple, cheap, and durable description; at the present reduced price of Printing Materials, a small office can now be furnished at a little more than the cost of one expensive and complicated Press.

His present Patent Printing Press is compact, with two perfect Iron Surfaces, instead of wood and stone, as formerly—requires no staying, and can be repaired by any common mechanic.

It is particularly adapted for the country, or for South America, where it is now generally known as the only press that can be transported into the interior of the country with safety and facility.—These Presses are of all sizes, from Imperial to Job and Card Presses, and at corresponding prices.

From his connection with all the Type Foundries of the U. States, he is enabled to furnish a complete Printing Office on the same terms as at the respective foundries.

He embraces this opportunity of offering his grateful acknowledgments for the liberal encouragement he has for a long series of years experienced from the trade, by which he has been enabled to manufacture a greater number of Printing Presses than any other individual in the United States; and will only add, that he is not now solicitous to do a greater business than he can manage with convenience, and continue to give satisfac ion to those who may favor him with their commands.

All articles in the Printing line as usual, and on as reasonable terms as at other establishments.

Lithographic Presses, of his make, may be seen at the principal offices of that art in different parts of the United States.

PROSPECT HILL

Literary & Scientific Institution.

PITTSBURGH, Pa.

ON the 1st of July, Mr. DANIEL STONE intends opening, near the City of Pittsburgh, an Institution for the instruction of boys. Its plan is to combine, as far as possible, the peculiar advantages of a domestic and public education.—The pupils, with the principal and assistants, will constitute one family, and be at all times under careful supervision. The Discipline will be mild, but strict, such as a father, solicitous for the welfare of his children, would exercise over them. It is believed that an appeal to reason, and the sense of honor and duty, will generally secure obedience. Coercive measures will, therefore, be adopted only in extreme cases.

The Course of Study will embrace the English, Latin, Greek, and French Languages; Arithmetic, Algebra, and Geometry; Geography and History—Ancient and Modern; Rhetoric, Composition, and Elocution; Natural Philosophy and Chemistry; Penmanship, Orthography, and Reading. Frequent examinations will be held, open to the friends and relations of the youths.

The Mode of Instruction will be thorough and critical, and no subject will be relinquished until fully understood. That the scholar's mind may become vigorous, active, and self-confident—prepared for the stern conflicts of life, and a fearless discharge of its duties, he will be encouraged to reason and decide for himself.

Each student will be required to attend such church as his parent or guardian shall designate.

To preserve health and elasticity of spirits, to check indolence, and promote industry among the students, they will be daily exercised in athletic sports.

Pupils will be admitted between the ages of Six and Sixteen. None can be received for less than one term.

The uniform Dress will consist of a cap, blue roundabout, with metal buttons, and blue pantaloons. Every article of clothing should be marked with the owner's name in full.

The Terms are two hundred dollars a year, payable quarterly in advance. This includes Tuition, Board, Lodging, Washing, Mending, Light, and Fuel.

The Vacations, after the present year, will be three—the 1st, of two weeks, from the 3d Wednesday in April; the 2d, of four weeks, from the 2d Wednesday in August; and one week at Christmas.

The Matron's department will be under the care of Mrs. Reynolds, of this city.

THE Public is respectfully informed, that this ELEGANT NEW THEATRE, at present building, in Fifth Street, will be opened for the Season, under the management of the subscriber, with a Dramatic Company not surpassed by any in the Union, on Monday, the Second of September, 1833.

The building has been substantially erected, by those well known Mechanics, Messrs. Roseburg, Reynolds, Scott, & McCulloch, after a plan drawn by John Haviland, Esq., of Philadelphia, whose justly acquired fame as an Architect will be increased by the style and Beauty of the Present Edifice.

MECHANICAL DEPARTMENT

Will be placed under the Superintendence of Mr. Hoffner, of the Chesnut Street Theatre, Philadelphia.

MR. E. FORREST,

MRS. KNIGHT,
MR. J. R. SCOTT,

Also, Mr. PARSLOE, of the Theatre, Covent Garden, London, &c. &c. &c.

"To raise the genius and to mend the heart;
Shew Virtue her own features;
Vice her own image;
The age and body of the time, his form and pressure."

And he throws himself confidently on the liberality of the citizens of Pittsburgh for support.

☞WELCH MEDICAMENTUM.☜

FOR the cure of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints. Jaundice, Cholic, Fever and Ague, Dysentery, Headach, Loss of Appetite, Flatulence, Hypochondria, Hysterics, Dropsical Complaints, and Heartburn, It also prevents all Bilious disorders, and removes habitual Costiveness, Asthma, Strangury, Gravel, Rheumatism, Gout, and Impurities of the Blood.

A person who uses this Medicamentum will not require the use of the lancet, or any means of the healing art. It restores and revives the animal spirits, invigorates the system, removes nervous tremors, obtunds rheumatic and anthritic pains, and prevents their return. It cleanses the stomach of all morbid humors, which cause indigestion, acidities, headach, and lowness of spirits; cures all bilious disorders, and all cholics of the stomach and bowels, almost immediately; inspires cheerfulness; gives comfort to the dropsical; takes away palpitation of the heart; gives circulation to the blood; restores bloom to the sallow or sickly cheek, and plumpness to the meagre habit; purges without pain, and banishes all cause of fever of every kind. It acts on the stomach, that great reservoir of the human system, a diseased state of which causes all diseases. No alteration in the usual habits of life is required, but the abstaining from distilled ardent spirits.

CERTIFICATE,

From Rev. Derick Lansing, D. D., Pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church in Utica.

Utica, Jan. 6, 1830.

To Dr. Hitchcock.—Dear Sir: I have always been one of the number of those who have placed little confidence in nostrums or specifics, and for this reason, although I saw your advertisement of the Welch Medicamentum, I could not bring my mind to consent to use it. My sufferings, from indigestion, during the past summer, were so severe, as materially to affect my comfort, and my capacity for usefulness. I have reason to thank you, sir, that, on hearing of the state of my health, you kindly sent me your Medicamentum. I have taken it faithfully, and with entire success. I have not been visited with one of those turns of distress, which before were weekly periodical, since I began to take your valuable medicine. Could I receive the same relief which I have hitherto experienced, on condition of taking it for life, I should cheerfully comply with such condition. Your's, very truly, D. C. LANSING.

ANTI-DYSPEPTIC ELIXER.

ONE of the most agreeable and efficacious Medicines ever discovered for the permanent cure of those chronic states of derangement of the stomach, constituting that miserable disease called Dyspepsia.

The basis of this Elixer is vegetables, and perfectly innocent in its operation; it destroys that sour state of the stomach, the instant it is taken, and stops the morbid secretion, by giving strength to the muscular fibre of that important organ, by which means the peristaltic motion of the intestines is increased, and the costiveness obviated; a new action is given to the system, which puts an end to a train of distressing nervous sensations.

Another form of the disease in which the Elixer is admirably calculated to relieve, is the decline of fever, where the stomach will not bear the ordinary strengthening medicines indicated in such cases, it has the surprising effect of giving vigor, and restoring the natural secretions of the body, without increasing the febrile state. Not the least danger is to be apprehended from exposure to cold, while under the use of this medicine, nor will it interrupt necessary employment of the patient a single hour.

☞A number of cases of cures performed by the Anti-Dyspeptic Elixer in the vicinity of Pittsburgh can be given.

COMPOUND SYRUP OF LIVERWORT,

A SAFE and Valuable Medicine for Coughs, Spitting of Blood, Consumption, and Liver Complaints.

Most of the medicines made use of for the above diseases are of a stimulating nature, composed generally of Resins and Balsams, in alcoholic solutions, which, although sometimes givingt emporary relief, in almost every instance where they are freely used, aggravate the disease, and reduce the strength of the patient.

This article possesses superior advantages over these preparations, its action being of a tonic, invigorating and strengthening nature, thus overcoming the disease by promoting expectoration, and gradully increasing the strength of the patient, and thus, without being attended with any unpleasant effects: it also agrees with the stomach, in all cases, and is a pleasant medicine to take.

Rights to use the machine in that part of the United States, named above, will be sold by the single county or in larger districts. As it is presumed that no one will purchase without seeing the machine at work, a description of it is deemed unnecessary. Should any person, however, wish to purchase, and find it inconvenient to visit the places where it is in operation, a machine will be furnished, warranted to plane, tongue and groove, and bring to an exact width and thickness, a white pine board of 12 feet long, and of any width from 1 to 14 inches, in one minute and ten seconds, or an oak board of the same dimensions in 2 minutes and 10 seconds. Machines may be seen at work in the cities of New Orleans, Washington, Philadelphia, New York, Boston, and others at the south and east, at Wheeling, Virginia, and at the saw mill of Messrs. Irwin & Herron, in this city.

Persons desiring to purchase will have the certificates of scientific and practical men who have seen it at work, in the different places in which it has been put up, forwarded to them. They give their opinion as to the great value of the invention, state the time they have seen boards dressed by this machine, and describe the quality of the work as compared with that performed by hand labor.

VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE.

THE Subscriber offers for sale the farm on which he lives, in Washington county, on Pigeon creek, one mile south of Williamsport, on the Monongahela river, to which there is a perfectly level road. This farm contains near 400 acres, the greater part of which is first rate land. There is on the premises a Brick Dwelling House, a Merchant mill, in good repair, a new saw mill, a stone still house, 35 by 40 feet; a salt works is also in operation, and worked to advantage; about 150 acres of land cleared and under good fence. There is on the premises three small tenements for the accommodation of families. This tract is well timbered, and abounds with stone coal and springs of water, both of the best quality.

To a person wishing to embark in a manufacturing business, and possessing capital, this would be a very desirable situation, having the advantage of both water power from Pigeon creek, and banks of the very best coal near to the works, and easy of access, and its vicinity to so navigable a river, where articles of any kind are so cheaply transported to Pittsburgh.

Valuable Real Estate for Sale.

ON MONDAY, the twenty first day of October, will be sold, at Public Auction, 250 Building Lots, and 80 Out Lots, in the flourishing town of Portsmouth, Ohio.

Portsmouth, the chief town of Scioto county, is pleasantly situated on high ground, on the bank of the Ohio river, near the mouth of Scioto river, which at Portsmouth approaches within half a mile of the Ohio, and about midway between Marietta and Cincinnati. The water is good, and the town has always been considered remarkably healthy. Its site is high, and places the population beyond the reach of the highest floods.

The Ohio and Erie Canal, which was finished last October, intersects the Ohio at that place, and brings there, for trans shipment, the produce of the very rich and extensive country it passes through. That Canal is 306 miles long, 40 feet wide and 4 feet deep. It passes through 13 of the most fertile and populous counties of Ohio, and serves as a channel of communication to the towns of Chillicothe, Circleville, Lancaster, Zanesville, Columbus, Hebron, Newark, Dresden, Roscoe, Trenton, Lockport, Dover, Salem, New Philadelphia, Bolivar, Massillon, Fulton, Clinton, Akron, and Boston. It is the connecting link between the navigation of the Mississippi, the Northern Lakes, and the New York and Welland Canals, intersecting the Ohio at Portsmouth, and Lake Erie at Cleveland. For the year 1831, the tolls on this Canal, which was completed only from the Lake to Chillicothe, amounted to $64,864: and from the tolls already received, it is estimated that the receipts for 1833 will exceed $185,000. It now forms an uninterrupted channel of communication between the Lakes and Ohio, and tends directly to increase the business of Portsmouth. The town has now 1750 inhabitants, and is rapidly increasing. In the immediate vicinity are extensive quarries of free stone, which furnish the chief ornamental building stone for Cincinnati and Louisville There are also valuable beds of iron ore, almost in proximity with the bituminous coal which is so abundant in that part of the country. The ore is of the first quality, and universally preferred in the western states. There are already, within a short distance of the mouth of the Canal, thirty Furnaces and Forges in operation, manufacturing upwards of 25.000 tons of iron per annum, of the value of a million of dollars. Steam boats of the largest class daily arrive at Portsmouth, depositing at that place their cargoes of Cotton, Sugar, Coffee, &c. and receiving in return the Flour, Pork, Whiskey, &c of the interior, brought there by way of the Canal. The commerce of the town is rapidly increasing, under the influence of these favorable circumstances, and in a few years it must become one of the most important places on the Ohio river. The lots offered for sale are situated in the principal streets of Portsmouth, and present an opportunity for the profitable investment of capital. Titles unquestionable and in fee simple.

☞The sale of the above property will take place on the 21st of October next, at 10 o'clock, A. M. in Portsmouth.

Maps, exhibiting the plan of the town, situation, and size of the Lots, may be had, on application to McAllister & York, Philadelphia; Turnbull & Winchester, Baltimore; Barr, Kneeland & Co. New York; or my Agent, Thomas Parker, Esq. Portsmouth, who will give all information on the subject.

TO PRINTERS, &c.

ADAM RAMAGE respectfully informs his friends and the public, that the continues to make Printing, Copper Plate, Copying, Seal, Lithographic, and other Presses.

Among the variety of Printing Presses in use, it is found necessary, where printing is so universal, to have one of a simple, cheap, and durable description; at the present reduced price of Printing Materials, a small office can now be furnished at a little more than the cost of one expensive and complicated Press.

His present Patent Printing Press is compact, with two perfect Iron Surfaces, instead of wood and stone, as formerly—requires no staying, and can be repaired by any common mechanic.

It is particularly adapted for the country, or for South America, where it is now generally known as the only press that can be transported into the interior of the country with safety and facility.—These Presses are of all sizes, from Imperial to Job and Card Presses, and at corresponding prices.

From his connection with all the Type Foundries of the U. States, he is enabled to furnish a complete Printing Office on the same terms as at the respective foundries.

He embraces this opportunity of offering his grateful acknowledgments for the liberal encouragement he has for a long series of years experienced from the trade, by which he has been enabled to manufacture a greater number of Printing Presses than any other individual in the United States; and will only add, that he is not now solicitous to do a greater business than he can manage with convenience, and continue to give satisfaction to those who may favor him with their commands.

All articles in the Printing line as usual, and on as reasonable terms as at other establishments.

Lithographic Presses, of his make, may be seen at the principal offices of that art in different parts of the United States.

Literary & Scientific Institution.

PITTSBURGH, Pa.

ON the 1st of July, Mr. DANIEL STONE intends opening, near the City of Pittsburgh, an Institution for the instruction of boys. Its plan is to combine, as far as possible, the peculiar advantages of a domestic and public education.—The pupils, with the principal and assistants, will constitute one family, and be at all times under careful supervision. The Discipline will be mild, but strict, such as a father, solicitous for the welfare of his children, would exercise over them. It is believed that an appeal to reason, and the sense of honor and duty, will generally secure obedience. Coercive measures will, therefore, be adopted only in extreme cases.

The Course of Study will embrace the English, Latin, Greek, and French Languages; Arithmetic, Algebra, and Geometry; Geography and History—Ancient and Modern; Rhetoric, Composition, and Elocution; Natural Philosophy and Chemistry; Penmanship, Orthography, and Reading. Frequent examinations will be held, open to the friends and relations of the youths.

The Mode of Instruction will be thorough and critical, and no subject will be relinquished until fully understood. That the scholar's mind may become vigorous, active, and self-confident—prepared for the stern conflicts of life, and a fearless discharge of its duties, he will be encouraged to reason and decide for himself.

Each student will be required to attend such church as his parent or guardian shall designate.

To preserve health and elasticity of spirits, to check indolence, and promote industry among the students, they will be daily exercised in athletic sports.

Pupils will be admitted between the ages of Six and Sixteen. None can be received for less than one term.

The uniform Dress will consist of a cap, blue roundabout, with metal buttons, and blue pantaloons. Every article of clothing should be marked with the owner's name in full.

The Terms are two hundred dollars a year, payable quarterly in advance. This includes Tuition, Board, Lodging, Washing, Mending, Light, and Fuel.

The Vacations, after the present year, will be three—the 1st, of two weeks, from the 3d Wednesday in April; the 2d, of four weeks, from the 2d Wednesday in August; and one week at Christmas.

The Matron's department will be under the care of Mrs. Reynolds, of this city.

New Theatre, Pittsburgh.

THE Public is respectfully informed, that this ELEGANT NEW THEATRE, at present building, in Fifth Street, will be opened for the Season, under the management of the subscriber, with a Dramatic Company not surpassed by any in the Union, on Monday, the Second of September, 1833.

The building has been substantially erected, by those well known Mechanics, Messrs. Roseburg, Reynolds, Scott, & McCulloch, after a plan drawn by John Haviland, Esq., of Philadelphia, whose justly acquired fame as an Architect will be increased by the style and Beauty of the Present Edifice.

A first rate London Artist has been employed, for the last three months, in preparing the Dresses especially for this Theatre, which, in point of
ELEGANCE AND SPLENDOR,
Will equal, if not surpass those belonging to the Metropolitan Theatres of New York, or Philadelphia.

THE SCENERY
Has been designed and executed by Mr. J. R. Smith, a young Artist of great talent, and whose productions may challenge comparison with those of the most distinguished Scene Painters of the day.

THE MACHINERY
Has been entrusted to the care of Mr. Stafford, late of the Philadelphia Theatres, and the direction of the
MECHANICAL DEPARTMENT
Will be placed under the Superintendence of Mr. Hoffner, of the Chesnut Street Theatre, Philadelphia.

In addition to the exertions of the Regular Company, most of whom are advantageously known in the Eastern Theatres, the Manager has great pride and pleasure in informing the inhabitants of Pittsburgh and its vicinity, that he has engaged, at great expense, the celebrated American Tragedian
MR. E. FORREST,
Who will have the honor of appearing before them at an early period, of which due notice will be given. Negotiations have already been entered into with the most distinguished Performers of the American Stage, who will appear in rapid succession—among others,
MR. & MRS. HILSON,
MISS CLARA FISHER,
MRS. KNIGHT,
MR. J. R. SCOTT,
Also, Mr. PARSLOE, of the Theatre, Covent Garden, London, &c. &c. &c.

In making these arrangements, the subscriber has used every exertion in his power to render THE THEATRE a place of rational amusement---

"To raise the genius and to mend the heart;
Shew Virtue her own features;
Vice her own image;
The age and body of the time, his form and pressure."

And he throws himself confidently on the liberality of the citizens of Pittsburgh for support.
FRAS. C. WEMYSS,
Lessee Pittsburgh Theatre.
